Special to the Bugle

NEW YORK - The President of Airvel Air Conditioning Inc. was named "Man of the Year" today by the Beresford Bugle.

The coveted award was presented to Mr. Joseph Osnos at his sumptuous home at 211 Central Park West. Peter L.W. Osnos well-known man about town and Providence correspondent for the Bugle made the presentation.

"Joseph Osnos deserves this award," the dashing young journalist said, "because of his outstanding accomplishments as a father and because he has filled in so ably for Marvin Fink who has bursitis."

Following the moving ceremony Mr. Osnos, a distinguished man who is known to be the father of a stocky and alert psychiatrist, took a nap. As is generally the case, Mr. Osnos fell asleep on the World Telegram and Sun thereby making it impossible for anyone else to read it.
