

The Culture of Politics . . .

Washington

"In Washington Meg Greenfield has bequeathed us a masterpiece. But then was she not herself something such?"
—Daniel Patrick Moynihan, The Washington Post Book World

NATIONAL BESTSELLER
978-1-58648-118-6

The Woman at the Washington Zoo

"Lovely . . . Stunning, unflinching . . . Williams had a special voice, one capable not just of canny political observation but of tenderness and bracing intimacy. One can hardly blame Noah for wanting to share it again. Or for wanting to hear it one last time, all in a rush." —New York Times Book Review

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER
978-1-58648-457-6

. . . and Popular Culture

Gracefully Insane

"[Beam's] book shapes extensive research into an absorbing saga braiding two overlapping histories: McLean's and psychiatry's . . . This is the work of a writer with a mind active and a heart awake."
—Boston Globe

#1 BOSTON GLOBE BESTSELLER
978-1-58648-161-2

Like a Rolling Stone

"Essential insight into the living history of rock & roll . . . Marcus brings us back not only to that landmark session . . . but to the social revolution of America in the Sixties." —Rolling Stone

978-1-58648-382-1

Africa

The Fate of Africa

"You cannot even begin to understand contemporary African politics if you have not read this fascinating book."
—Sir Bob Geldof

978-1-58648-398-2

They Poured Fire on Us From the Sky

"One of the most riveting stories ever told of African childhoods—and a stirring tale of courage."
—Emily Wax, Washington Post Book World

CHRISTOPHER AWARD WINNER
LOS ANGELES TIMES BESTSELLER
978-1-58648-388-3

and Asia

The Tiananmen Papers

"The first glimpse inside the top level of China's leadership during those difficult days. . . . There are few surprises about who the villains of Tiananmen were, but there is an unmatched frisson in watching them play their roles in real time." —Time

978-1-58648-122-3

China: The Balance Sheet

"One of the most lucid and well-argued recent books on how the West should respond to China's rise." —The Economist

978-1-58648-435-4

When the War Was Over

"Indispensable for understanding our times and the noble and terrible sides of modern man. It is a powerful and important book."

—Washington Post Book World

978-1-89102-003-3

Identity

Lipstick Jihad

"In her compelling new memoir, Lipstick Jihad, Afshar Moaveni gives the reader a guided tour through the underground youth culture in Tehran . . . an illuminating book." —Michiko Kakutani, The New York Times

LOS ANGELES TIMES BESTSELLER
SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE BESTSELLER
978-1-58648-378-4

An Infinity of Little Hours

"It is fascinating to enter, if only for a few hours, into this way of life, where extreme devotion forms at least a bit of a bulwark against humanity's digressions."

—Los Angeles Times Book Review

978-1-58648-432-3

and History

Auschwitz

"Laurence Rees's compact, devastating new history of the infamous death factory distills a crucial lesson—perhaps the crucial lesson—of the 20th century: that the human capacity for mass murder is grotesquely widespread and must be faced squarely if we hope to resist it."
—Washington Post Book World

978-1-58648-357-9

Infamous Scribbles

"A work of genuine historical research, colorful personality, intellectual sophistication, wit, and durable interest." —James Wolcott, Vanity Fair

978-1-58648-428-6

publicaffairs
IN PAPER

From ten books to ten years

In Fall 1998, PublicAffairs published its first ten books. In fact, only nine books were listed in the catalog, but our life as a publisher began with an uncatalogued instant book—our first paperback, The Starr Report—which hit #1 on the New York Times bestseller list.

During the following ten years we published many books crucial to understanding our times; books that will last, and resonate into the future. On these pages are some of our proudest paperback successes—our signature good books about things that matter—all still selling, all worth stocking.

Visionaries

Banker to the Poor Muhammad Yunus, winner of the Nobel Peace Prize

The autobiography of the Nobel Peace Prize winning economist who came up with a simple but revolutionary solution to end world poverty—microcredit.

"Muhammad Yunus is a practical visionary who has improved the lives of millions of people in his native Bangladesh and elsewhere in the world. Banker to the Poor [is] well-reasoned yet passionate." —Los Angeles Times

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

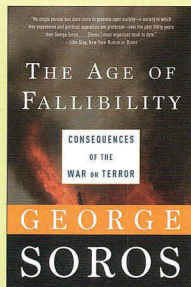

978-1-58648-198-8

The Age of Fallibility George Soros

"No single person has done more to promote open society—a society in which free expression and political opposition are protected—over the past thirty years than George Soros. . . . [Soros'] most important book to date." —John Gray, New York Review of Books

"[Soros has] been unfairly dismissed as just another big-dollar partisan. The Age of Fallibility really proves that there's much more to it than that. . . . This is a book about how we think, and it's worth consideration by all sides." —Forbes.com

978-1-58648-434-1

Democracy

The Case for Democracy

"The Case for Democracy is an important book. In the post-9/11 world, it speaks eloquently and from the heart of a moment of possibility for freedom; it is often persuasive in making the link between liberty and security." —New York Times

978-1-58648-354-8 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

The Ideas That Conquered the World

"A formidable and thought-provoking tour d'horizon. Best of all, it gives readers something to argue about." —New York Times Book Review

978-1-58648-206-0

Soft Power

"As brilliant as it is timely, Professor Nye's book is must reading for anyone who cares about the success of America and the world."

—Former Secretary of State Madeleine K. Albright

978-1-58648-306-7

and Justice

Tulia

"Tulia, in Blakeslee's rich and deeply satisfying telling, resembles nothing so much as a modern-day To Kill a Mockingbird." —New York Times Book Review

WINNER OF THE J. ANTHONY LUKAS BOOK PRIZE

978-1-58648-454-5

Open Wide the Freedom Gates

"Her historic contributions on behalf of women and families, the poor, the victims of racial and sex discrimination, the disadvantaged, downtrodden and forgotten people of our country have made America a more just and compassionate nation."

—Coretta Scott King

978-1-58648-285-2

Better Schools

Nothing's Impossible

"A testimony to the hard work and love of one dedicated educator in conquering even the most overwhelming challenges in life."

—Former President Jimmy Carter

Now in its 23rd printing

978-1-89162-020-1

One Day, All Children...

"A diary of a social entrepreneur, an inspiring how-to guide for young people with big dreams, a thoughtful tale of the ups and downs of a decade at the stunningly successful nonprofit organization, Teach For America."

—New York Times

978-1-58648-179-7

Great Leaders

Franklin Delano Roosevelt

"Conrad Black . . . provides a sweeping insight into a life that Churchill called 'one of the commanding events in human history.'"

—Former President Bill Clinton

978-1-58648-282-4

President Reagan: The Role of a Lifetime

"A superlative study of a president and his presidency."

—The New Yorker

978-1-89162-091-1

Wars Past . . .

The Cat from Hue

"Formidable, gripping and always informative. . . . Laurence's eloquent, at times acerbic recollection of Vietnam is one of the finest books in its genre." —New York Times Book Review

WINNER OF THE OVERSEAS PRESS CLUB CORNELIUS RYAN AWARD

978-1-58648-160-5

My War

"A thoughtful, witty and moving memoir . . . Rooney writes about the war he saw with wit, wisdom, and a down-to-earth lack of sentimentality."

—The Chicago Tribune

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

978-1-58648-159-9

. . . and Present

Masters of Chaos

"Special Forces personnel are as reclusive as they are exclusive, but Linda Robinson has gone beyond the headlines and the hype to bring us into their brotherhood. Get ready for adventure as you share the grit and glory with the Masters of Chaos."

—James Bradley, author of Flags of Our Fathers and Flyboys

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

978-1-58648-352-4

Waging Modern War

"[I]llustrates rather chillingly the problems that the United States faces today in using military force to achieve political objectives. . . . General Clark has performed another service by highlighting these problems at a crucial moment in American history."

—Los Angeles Times Book Review

978-1-58648-139-1

